Book Choice #1: Complete the attached summary sheet or use the format on notebook paper.

Book Choice #2: Book in a Box Project

A "Book in a Box" is a book report contained in a shoebox/box with a lid. The purpose is to interest a classmate to want to read your book. You will present your box to the class. During the oral presentation you will give a short summary of the story and explain why you selected the objects in the box. Follow the instructions below to complete your box.

Top of the box: Be neat and glue.

- Design and color a picture of the cover. You must include the title and author of the book. (It must be a different cover than the one from your book.)

Sides of the box: Be neat and glue. You may decorate the sides with pictures.

- Write a paragraph about your favorite part of the story.
- Write your opinion about the book. Did you like it? If you did like it, tell why. If you did not like it, tell why you didn't.
- List the main characters
- Setting (where does the story take place).

Inside:

Choose at least 3-5 items that can represent the characters, setting, or important events in the story that will fit into your box.
